

Variety Show Alternate Assignments

These assignments may only be completed if you have a signed (by Mrs. Couch) excused absence request form for any required after school rehearsal/performance.

Dress Rehearsal Alternate Assignment

If you have an excused absence for the after school dress rehearsal, you may complete the following assignment to replace the missing grade:

You must write a performance critique comparing/contrasting one of your classmate's performance during the variety show with your own performance during the variety show. It must be 6 paragraphs long (paragraphs contain at least FIVE sentences) and include the following structure/formatting:

1. Introductory paragraph
2. Paragraph describing classmate's effort/participation in class
3. Paragraph describing your effort/participation in class
4. Paragraph describing classmate's effort/participation in the show
5. Paragraph describing your effort/participation in show
6. Concluding paragraph with overall analysis of classmate's work versus your work

You must turn this critique to Mrs. Couch no later than two weeks after date of the variety show performances.

Variety Show Performance Alternate Assignment

If you have an excused absence for the after school performances, you may complete the following assignment to replace the missing grade:

You must create a "viral video" that is AT LEAST two minutes long. This can be any format you want; however, it must have:

1. Clearly defined choreography
2. Appropriate music choice (no curse words)

You must email this video along with a short written description (at least two-three paragraphs) of your creative process in completing the task to Mrs. Couch no later than two weeks after date of the variety show performances.
